The CSA ministry was founded and directed by Roy Eugene Davis. He taught selflessly in the Kriya Yoga tradition for 65 years. Ron Lindahn has been a personal disciple of Mr. Davis since 1970 and is carrying on with his dedication and inspirational message.

Center for Spiritual Awareness offices and retreat center are in northeast Georgia, 151 CSA Lane, Lakemont (Rabun County).

Mr. Davis' book Paramahansa Yogananda As I Knew Him will be at the seminar at a special price of $5.00.

Benefits of Regular, Effective Meditation Practice
Stress reduction, strengthening of the body's immune system, slower biologic aging, better concentration, rational thinking, emotional stability, and more satisfying spiritual growth. Forms of practice may include prayer, affirmation, mantra, pranayama, visualization, analytical contemplation, and transcendent superconscious meditation.

Ron Lindahn has been teaching in the Kriya Yoga tradition for more than 45 years. He was ordained by Roy Eugene Davis in 1978.

Attachment to modified states of mind and objective phenomena produces a false sense of self-identity. When that error in perception is corrected, our awareness is immediately restored to its original, pure wholeness.

– Roy Eugene Davis

When the purity of one's essence, mind, intellect, and awareness is the same, freedom from all former constraints is absolute [complete].

Patanjali's Yoga-Sutras 3:56

Read a little. Meditate more. Think of God all the time.

– Paramahansa Yogananda (1893 – 1952)
